SCRIPTURE – ISA. 1:15-16

JUNE, 2025

And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers,
I will not hear: YOUR HANDS ARE FULL OF BLOOD.

Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; CEASE TO DO EVIL;

SUBJECT – AMERICA IS IN TROUBLE, AND, BLACK PREACHERS ARE TO BLAME!!! [2]

The message for this month, is a continuation of last month's message. You could say that, that message, was merely an introduction to the meat of this message.

Last month I laid the groundwork for this message, by telling you just what the circumstances were, at the time that God gave Isaiah the message that he was to give to His[God's] people.

It all centered around what was going on in their midst, and how hardly anyone seemed to be standing up for Righteousness.

It got that way because, the one's responsible for directing the people, as well as the leaders of the nation, had, what could best be described as, prostituted themselves, and the Word of God.

And why did they do it??

If we look at a passage of scripture, found in verse 23, of this chapter, it tells the complete story.

It says, Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

Notice the term, princes. That term signifies someone that is a child of a ruler. It also can signify, a child of a King, or God!!

It goes on to say that they actively seek after rewards, and love gifts.

Now, let's fast-track that same mentality to, today, in this nation.

Do you know any of God's Children, that fit in to this same picture, as leaders??? They are everywhere. Willing to do whatever the person that is offering the rewards, and gifts to them, wants them to do.

That my friend, is the same thing a harlot/prostitute does. And it doesn't always have to be of a sexual nature.

Now, the thing is, as leaders, that means that they have control over others.

So, if someone wants them to direct the ones they have influence over, to do something a certain way, then, that is the same as prostitution.

Now, some of you will say that both sides do it. The question then becomes what is it that they are directing the people to do??

Remember, there are only 2 directions to move in. One is toward God/Christ, while the other, is leading them away from Him.

There is a third option. And that is to just sit back and be an observer, not moving in either direction.

While this may seem like a good choice, God/Christ sees it quite differently.

In the book of Rev. 3:15-16, Jesus is talking about a Church, that neither is on fire 'hot' for the things of God, or even 'cold'[rejects], the things of God. It would rather remain neutral 'lukewarm', than to take any type of stance.

Jesus goes on to say that, because they choose to take that position, He will lump them in with those that are 'cold', towards Him.

Most of our churches today, are led by preachers that fit in to the 'cold', or 'lukewarm' category. And as a result, the people that follow them, slip in to that mindset as well.

Why do they do this???

As the scripture says, for rewards and gifts!!! Whoever offers the bigger rewards or gifts, gets this preacher's backing.

And since politicians, are in a position to offer the best things to struggling preachers and communities, they are accepted with open arms, and hands out, for whatever niceties that politician can throw their way.

That is why politicians can come in to our churches, with known agendas, that God rejects, and the preacher overlooks them, their agenda, completely.

Now the thing is, since this preacher is supposed to be God's/Christ's, representative, then, the politician leaves the church, thinking that they have God's support pm whatever t is they stand for.

By the same token, the people in he congregation, get that same message, and have no qualms about supporting the politician's agenda at all.

This is why we can have so many politicians, that say they are Christians, being so dogmatic on issues that, according to God, are leading this nation to destruction.

They don't know any better because the man of God, supports them in what they stand for!!!

Now, there is a reason that I put the blame on black preachers for the mess this nation is in.

It all has to do with the influence the black community has in this nation.

Over the past 30 years or so, thanks to the black community's push for 'civil rights', racial equality, and justice, many politicians, whose agenda is such, that they see ways to use what the black leadership is pushing for, as a means to support their own agenda, will offer their support in getting those things passed in to law.

All it takes from the black community, is their support for him/her, when it is time to run for election.

Naturally, the party that is doing this, is the Democratic party.

Now the thing is, they don't really intend to do what they promised. They just said that, to get black votes. If the question ever comes up about why the politician didn't do what he/she promised??? Just like a broken record, they say that the 'racist' GOP blocked them from passing that legislation in to law.

And black preachers, that should know better, accept the excuse, and relay that same message to their followers. That way, when it is time to vote again, that same politician can come back in to the church and 'play the race card', and get supported for another term.

The reason why these politicians on the Democratic side of the aisle, pay so much attention to the black community is because, without the black vote, the Democratic party, would be rendered essentially impotent!!!

Most of the black community sees them for what they are, but, in order to stop those 'racist' Republicans, from turning the clock back on the civil rights gains we have made, we will keep supporting the Democratic party, no matter what!!

And since God's man supports them, then, what's the big deal??

After all, both party's are the same!!! No they are not!!!

As I mentioned earlier, you have one party, moving closer the Christ, while the other is moving away from Him.

The thing is, in order to know which is which, you have to know what criteria should be looked at, to make the right decision.

And, that responsibility falls on one group of individuals, preachers.

Being God's representatives to man on this earth, they bear the task of teaching their people, what is, and is not acceptable, in the Eyes of God.

If the preacher is doing his job, then, it is the individual's responsibility to accept and adhere to that particular lifestyle.

On the other hand, if the preachers is not doing his job, then he will be held accountable for every soul that ends up in Hell, because of him not doing his job.

In the old testament book of Ezekiel 33:1-6, we find the outline of what I have just described to you, in a simplistic, yet powerful message, concerning [watchmen/prophets/preachers], and their responsibilities and warnings about their position.

Now, the reason I pick black preachers as the major cause of the problems in this nation, is that. The black community, believe it or not, essentially controls the decisions that the Democratic party makes, concerning laws, and policies.

You ask, how can that be???

As I mentioned earlier, without the support of our community, 90+ percent, there would be no Democratic party. At least no where near as powerful as it is today. The black community is what is holding it together.

This last election, showed what happens if blacks either don't come out to vote for their candidate, or votes for a candidate of another party. They lost, BIG TIME!!!

Why did blacks do this???

Because, for the first time, they began to see that this party, that they had supported faithfully, for over 60 years, had been taking them for granted, and making promises to them, that they had no intention of keeping.

The party was simply using them, for their votes, and not giving a damn, about their status in this nation.

Blacks began to see people from other countries, mostly illegally, coming here by thousands every day, and the Democrats were taking care of them, as if they were new born babies. They gave them taxpayer dollars to spend, put them up in some of the finest hotels in the cities, gave them food stamps, and social security benefits.

Meanwhile, black families, were living on the streets, no money, very little assistance for basic needs or anything else.

Yet, those black preachers, were getting over like fat rabbits. Flying all over the country, and even overseas, on taxpayer dollars, eating the finest food, staying in immaculate houses, most in gated communities, and such.

And since the election, the Democrats are back, trying their old tricks, of getting black preachers to give them one more chance.

The thing is, it wasn't the black preacher that made them change who they voted for. It was preachers that had the proper perspective on things, and go blacks to for once, listen to the other side for a change.

One of the major problems we have in our community is, if a preacher's black, he is supposed to be in fellowship with the other black preachers. This means, that they all deal with the same problems, the same way.

This means, when there is a problem in the community, blame the 'white man', the Republicans, and support the Democrats.

If a preacher goes against that, then he is essentially someone that they want nothing to do with. And, they will make sure that the message gets out to the entire community.

Black preachers are always talking about how Republicans are racists, and never come in to our community to talk to us about our needs.

Well, on 2 different occasions, during the 2026 campaign, and again during the 2024 campaign, our current president, did exactly that!!

The problem was, he didn't go to one of these black prostitute's church to do it. He chose to go to 2 churches, 1 in each season, that didn't hold to the view that most of those black preachers were teaching.

Since those 2 preachers happened to be black, those other black preachers attacked them as being bought and paid for, by the Republicans. Mind you now, they[those preachers protesting], are bought and paid for by the Democrats. So their accusations are moot.

The thing is, who wants to go to a church, or anywhere, where the host, already has it in for you, to make you look bad?? Not only that, but, they have nothing in common!!!

The thing is, those 2 preachers, present a threat, not so much to the Democratic party, but moreso to the position these preachers have with the Democrats.

Or they can't produce the needed votes, during the elections, then, they stand to lose out on the benefits that come with being a 'stooge', for that party. And make no mistake about it, that is just what they are.

After the '24 election, that put Donald Trump back in office, those black preachers blamed the loss on 'racism' and misogyny, on the part of whites, and men.

From what I was hearing on the street, most black men, the ones that have maligned for decades, and made to feel like they were worthless, actually swayed the results the other way. More next month!!!

THINGS CHRISTIANS NEED TO REMEMBER AND PRACTICE, THAT THEY TOO EASILY ARE LED TO OVERLOOK!!

In this world/life, in which we live, we are warned by Christ, about the challenges that all of us will face every day. And while a lot of them have no discernible effect on our lives, we tend to just go with whatever is the going trend, or fad, at that particular time.

The way we dress, how we look, what type of job we have, our friends, the groups we run around with, the types of music we listen to, the events we attend and a whole host of others, are there for us to choose from. And as I said, there is no discernible effect on our lives, as far as we can tell, that is either good or bad. It all boils down to one thing. And that is, 'what pleases me.'

If it makes 'me' feel good about 'myself', then, why not go with it???

Usually, what makes 'me' feel good about 'myself' is, does it meet with the approval of others? What will my friends think?? What will my family think?? What will those that I really want to impress think??

If they approve, then, I'm all in!!! If they don't, then I will have to change my thinking. After all, we all need the approval of others if we hope to get anywhere in this life.

As I said, these are some of the motivating factors, that are behind our decision making processes. And as I said, most of them give absolutely no indication as to what they hold in store for those that embrace them.

However, while there may not be any negative effects that the average person can see, the Christian, has at their disposal, the tools necessary to look beyond the outer layer of all that fluff, appeal and glamour, and see the absolute rottenness, that is waiting for anyone who grabs hold of it.

This is why Jesus made a point of telling us that we should not be allowing our flesh and emotions to lead us in the choices that we make, because, to do so, opens us up for our own destruction. Time and again, we are told to walk after the Spirit, and to ignore the desires of our flesh. [Rom. 8:6-9, Gal. 5:16-17, Mat. 7:24-27]

And why is this?? Because our flesh, is aligned with the forces of evil, the Devil. Everything that it does, is to garner praise and pleasure for itself. This is the exact same thing the Devil/Lucifer, tried to do when he was one of God's angels. He made plans to be equal with God. And for that, he was cast out of Heaven, along with about one-third of the angelic host, that aligned with him.

In order to get back at God, he decided to go after His most prized creation, man! Since we are made in His image, then, every soul that ends up in Hell, is another image of Himself, that He has had to destroy!! And basically, the only ones that will be there, are the ones that sought to please themselves, and not God.

When we choose to follow our own desires, we are choosing to follow our flesh. And, if we are doing that, then we are by default, following the Devil.

Now, if God has a final place for the Devil and his angels, then that means whoever else is following him, will end up with them as well. [Mat. 25:41, Isa. 5:13]

This is why it is so important that Christians know, remember and understand, who they are, and what they are supposed to be doing when it comes to making choices about the things they believe, and why!!!

The first thing is, as a Christian, you are living in a land that is totally hostile to you. You and it, have absolutely nothing in common!! There is almost nothing you can do, as a Christian, that will get the world to like you. The only way to get them to like you is, you will have to back off of being steadfast on God's Word. In other words, forsake Him.

Christians need to know that the Devil has a plethora, of tricks, schemes, threats and deceptions, to use against you. If he can't get to you directly, he will try to do it through those that are closest to you like your parents, spouse, children and other family members and friends. [2Cor. 2:11, 1Jn. 2:16, Mat. 4:1-11]

The Christian needs to know that we have an arsenal of things that we can use both for defense, as well as offense. And they are more than enough to overcome anything the Devil tries to use against us. [Eph. 6:10-18, 2Cor. 10:3-5]

The thing is, they will do you no good, IF, you are unaware of the capabilities you have, when the Devil comes knocking at your door.

In the political climate we live in today, we have one party, that consistently harps on things that are designed to put fear in the hearts and minds of those that are ignorant, as to what is behind this party, as well as the results of going along with what this party promotes.

Their thing is, to make as many of us as possible, so dependent on them, that we will turn our backs on any and everything, including Christ, to get some relief. They always have a solution to your problems. However, each of these solutions, comes with strings attached.

Those strings, though not that apparent, are what will lead you down the path of destruction. This is because, if you support this party for any reason, you are supporting its rebellion against the Christ, you claim to be serving.

While things like increasing the minimum wage to $15.00/hr, the threat of your social security, medicare and medicaid being cut, getting rid of racism and other forms of discrimination, raising taxes on the rich, and a bunch of others, sounds good, it is the strings of supporting abortion, gay rights, separation of church and state, affirmative action, that are also tied in to the package. If you want the so-called good things, you will also be supporting the wicked things. You can't have one, without the other. They are all tied together!!

The key word/element in this 'bag of tricks', is FEAR!! Just like people will be fearful of the unknown, the enemy will use that element to get you to do whatever he wants you to do. The thing is, the ones he is able to use it on, are those that don't know God, don't know His promises, and commandments, don't know the position they have in Him, and what things they already have.

Can you imagine the Devil, coming up to a person whose bank account is 6 figures, has a house full of food and all the pleasures one could want, and telling him, 'if you join me, I will make sure that you will always have something to eat, and a place to stay??

As ridiculous as that sounds, that is what he is saying to those that name the name of Christ.

What Christians need to remember is, you are a Child of God, and Joint Heir with Jesus Christ. All of Creation belongs to Him, and you have it, at your disposal. The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof. That means, the enemy is trying to make you think that you have nothing unless you join him.

All those Angels you read about in the Bible, that destroyed great armies, are at your beck and call. And, to top that off, believe it or not, your enemy, is actually 'under your feet!!' He has already been defeated!! And that is where he will stay, unless you decide to let him get up.

So, the enemy, through the Democratic party, is trying to sell you a fake bill of goods, just like He tried on Jesus, in the wilderness. The thing is, Jesus wasn't buying. And neither should you!! You are a mighty man/woman of God. Now get up on your feet, and act like it!!!
