SCRIPTURE – JER. 1:12

SEPTEMBER, 2024

Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

SUBJECT – YOU CAN COUNT ON GOD, TO FULFILL HIS PROMISES!!! ALL OF THEM!

The message for this month, is one that has a double meaning. And, depending on which side of His Promises you fall on, you will be filled with great joy, or great mourning.

Throughout most of our lives, if we believe anything at all about God/Christ, we tend to fully embrace all of the good things that He promises, and as such, we have always had a reason to be full of happiness and joy.

Let's face it, good news, is always something that is welcomed, especially in troublesome times. It is sometimes referred to as a light at the end of a dark tunnel. Something that will serve to keep you moving forward to it.

Sometimes it is referred to as peace, in the midst of a storm. Who wouldn't want that to be around when things go awry??

When there appears to be no hope, a look in to God's Word, provides that Hope. When it seems like you are going to drown in an abyss of sorrow and misery, His Word, provides you with a life-line.

Whatever you need, He can provide it for you.

In fact, the entire message of the gospel, has been reduced to two words. And, those are, GOOD NEWS!!!

Who doesn't need to have some GOOD NEWS in their lives every now and then?? I know that I do!!

However, This message is not about those promises, but rather the promises He has made to those that for all intents and purposes, hate Him!!

Oh yes, He has made promises to you/them as well.

And as the scripture says, He will hasten to perform them, once He has given you/them fair warning, and you/they paid no attention to it.

The Bible tells us that, Deu 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

Deu 7:10 And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.

In other words, He will come to them and tell them to their faces what He is about to do, then do it.

The reason for this is, He doesn't want anyone, or anything else to be given credit for what happens to them.

People have a way of blaming their misfortunes on things like bad luck, the GOP, Donald Trump, systemic racism, and you name it.

It is very seldom, if ever, that they will blame what is happening to them, on their own actions. Especially as it pertains to God's commandments.

If you will remember, anytime He was getting ready to do something to someone, city, or nation, He gave them plenty of warning, as well as time to change their ways.

He did this by sending His prophets to them to deliver the message to either repent, or perish!!

Some nations, and individuals repented and were spared.

But others like Sodom and Gomorrah, Egypt, even the entire world, except for Noah, and others, faced the full force of His wrath!!!

There is a reason that He has the Church here on earth at this time. And, it is not just to help strengthen those that are at a loss as to how their lives are going. But, it is also to warn those that think that they are free to do as they please, and still be acceptable in His sight when the time comes, that that isn't how it is going to go.

On many occasions, I have had to tell people that, 'If you end up in hell, you will do so despite everything that God did to prevent you from going there!'

2Pet 3:9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

If you have ever driven down a road towards a railroad crossing, and you see the red lights flashing, hear the loud bells ringing, and in many instances, the crossing gates down, that is a clear indication that there is a train coming, and you need to stop.

Now, it is totally up to you if you want to stop, or go around those gates. However, you were warned, and there is nothing you, or any of your family members can do, as far as seeking some sort of legal redress for what happened to you, if you should get injured or killed.

Well, with God, the same thing applies.

Just about everyday, you get exposed to some message from God, either on the radio, TV, internet, or a friend or relative, that tries to get you to change the way you are doing things, and get you live in order before it is to late.

Those occurrences are the same things God uses to get us to stop, and change course, that the railroad crossing signals are for, in stopping us from crossing in front of that oncoming train.

Now here's the thing. Sometimes, at those crossings, there might be a malfunction, or some repairs are being made on the tracks, and the signals may be activated, but there is no train in sight.

In that case, it is safe for you to go around the gates and continue on your way. The same thing can also be said about air-raid sirens, and such.

Occasionally, they have to be tested, just to see if they are functioning properly.

Not so with God!!

He is always on the job, and never sets about to send messages that carry no weight, or importance at all.

If He says something, He means it.

He doesn't play games. And Woe to anyone who thinks He does.

Here is a message that He has given me to pass on to you, and hopefully you will pass on to others!!

Isa 46:10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

Isa 46:11 Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: YEA, I HAVE SPOKEN IT, I WILL ALSO BRING IT TO PASS; I HAVE PURPOSED IT, I WILL ALSO DO IT.

Isa 46:12 Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from righteousness:

The message that He has given me, to give to you is this.

Because those of you, that claim to be His People, that represent Him to the world, have chosen to align yourselves with those that openly support the killing of HIS BABIES, in the wombs of their mothers, you shall feel His wrath, and pain, at the loss of 1 or more of your children, or grandchildren henceforth, until you change your ways.

He gave this nation a reprieve when it ended the practice abortion in 2022, thanks to the vessel He used, Donald Trump!!!

But, almost immediately there arose a movement to proceed to do whatever it takes to make it the law of the land again. And leading the way were many Church leaders that claim to be saved, sanctified, filled with the Holy Ghost, and baptized in Jesus' Name!!

It is these people that will feel the Greater wrath of God on their own lives, as well as seeing the destruction of their own kids.

Maybe then, they will get some inkling of how God feels at the wholesale slaughter of over 78M of His babies, that are made in His image.

Some of you may think I am going too far!!

Well, that is between you and God. I am only giving you what He has given me, months ago.

From observation, I have seen a marked increase of parents, having to bury their children, from older adults, down to toddlers.

I have heard the weeping and wailing, and asking God why did it happen to them?? I suspect in large part because they support abortion, so, God is letting them reap what they sow!!!

As I said earlier, God makes promises on both sides of the aisle, if you will. And what He says, He will do.

The question is, if you know that He is not playing around when it comes to this issue, then, what are you going to do.

He has put up all the warning signs, flashing lights, bells and whistles, yet you still think you can get away without changing course???

You know, the Bible says, that Judgment must begin at the house of God..... [1Pet 4:17]. Talking about the Church!!

God is getting ready to make an example out of His People first, before He deals with the rest of the ungodly!!

This message may be a hard one to swallow, but, it is, what they say, 'CRUNCH TIME!!'

The Church should be about promoting Holiness, Righteousness and Sanctification.

We are in this world, but are called to live lives apart from the world.

When you start compromising with the ungodly, and partaking in things that bring dishonor to the Christ you claim you serve, you essentially show them that there is no benefit in living for Christ.

How can you tell someone to stop doing evil, when you, at the same time, are engaged in it also??

The whole message of the Gospel is, those that live lives in line with what God says is Right and Wrong, will have the best of what life has to offer.

When you start acting like the ungodly do, resorting to the same things they do, to solve your problems, you are bringing dishonor to Christ because you are saying that He can't solve your problem, and you have to do what you have to do.

In just over 2 months, this nation will, once again, be going to the polls, to elect the person that will lead this nation for the next 4 years.

As is the case, in this election is a choice between continuing to defy God in just about every way possible, which in return, will lead to more misery and destruction. Or, a better choice that will lead this nation back to some sort of semblance of what we were, that made us the greatest nation on earth. Thanks to God!!!

It all depends on those that name the name of Christ, doing what they are supposed to do, and that is setting the example by rejecting what the ungodly say is the right choice.

If you have any doubts about who to vote for, just remember, God's warning!!

He has given you all the time and information you need to make the right decision. You can't say that nobody ever told you.

Some of us, come up with what I would say are the dumbest excuses as to why we vote for the candidates we vote for.

The primary one is, I don't support abortion, but, I support my candidate's stand on civil rights and the economy.

Has it ever occurred to you that the reason for that condition, is because of the abortion issue???

Amos 3:3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed? Even if you don't support abortion, the fact that you know that your candidate does, and you support him/her, then, you are supporting it by association.

A sister in Christ told me one day that no one is perfect, and the person I support is just as bad, as the one she supports.

First of all, in the eyes of God, some sins are far worse than others. If you read the books of the law, you will see that the punishments for different sins, are different.

Some require a slap on the wrist, so to speak, while others require the offender to be put to death. Cutting to the chase, her candidate is guilty of felonies, while the one I support is guilty of misdemeanors. [Luke 12:47-48].

It would be better, if you have any doubts, not to vote at all, than to go out and vote for a person who is leading this nation to its own destruction.

Wouldn't it be something if, right after the polls closed on voting day, Jesus came back and took His Church out of here, and you were left behind, because of your vote??

OUR TIME AND CHANCES,, ARE RUNNING OUT!!!

In just a little over 2 months from now, this nation will, once again, have the opportunity to select someone that it feels is the one to lead us for the next 4 years.

What makes this choice particularly interesting, is that one of the 2 individuals seeking that position, is a woman of color. The reason I say it like this is, there is some question as to whether she is black, or Indian [from India].

The other individual, is a man that held the office once before from 2016 -2000. The woman he is running against was chosen as the Vice President by the man that defeated this man in 2000. So essentially she is holding the office of VP right now.

Now their names are not important, and neither is their race. What is important is, where do they stand on the issues concerning the well-being of this nation.

When I say this, people have all sorts of ideas as to what makes this nation as great as it is. Some will say it's the freedoms we all enjoy. Others will say the opportunities to succeed and become wealthy. Still others will say it is the idea that everyone can pursue the American Dream of Life, Liberty and Happiness.

All of these things are part and parcel of what makes this nation the greatest, and strongest nation on the face of the earth. Bar-none.

But, what is usually left out of the mix, is that none of these things would be available to us, if it wasn't for God's Hand on this nation. For truly, 'If it wasn't for God being on our side, where would we be??' He is the Source of everything that holds this nation up, for the whole world to see.

Now, getting back to our 2 candidates. One is saying all the right things, that make people fall in line to support her. She says all the right things, that they want to hear, and at the same time, demonizes her opponent, for his, what she has called, 'archaic' stand on things in the past.' She has declared that if she gets elected, we will not go back, to the old way of doing things!!'

The problem is, if you examine just what it is that she is calling 'archaic', and the old way of doing things, it becomes quite apparent that she is talking about the very principles that made this nation what it is, and that is, Faith in God, through Jesus Christ!!

You see, from the biblical standpoint, we come to understand that the only reason we are where we are, is because, up until the past 50 or so years, we held His Word in high esteem. Our public institutions proudly displayed the ten commandments, and other Bible verses. Our schools started each day with prayer. Our laws reflected the guidelines of what was, and was not acceptable behavior from the citizens.

Even the U.S. Constitution, the Declaration of Independence, and the Bill of Rights, all make reference to God!!

During that time, those that chose not to abide by those rules, essentially stayed out of sight [in the closet]. They wouldn't dare get out in public and act up, or else, they would wind up in jail.

There was absolutely no tolerance for the evil that some men and women engaged in.

But this woman's party sought to change the status quo!!

They began to slowly dismantle the very things that connected us to God, for the sole purpose of attaining power and control over the groups of people that were the dregs of society. Then they got them, to vote them in to political office where they could effectively change laws in their favor.

As this began to happen, things slowly began to unravel. There was a slow and steady rise in crime, misery and poverty, which this particular party was quick to blame their opponents for. And as things got worse, more and more people chose the side of this party, which only served to make them even more bolder.

Now, you have to realize that most people have some sort of decent principles. The problem is, those principles, unless they serve to help people in their endeavors to attain what they want, are seen to be hindrances to their goals. This then leads to antagonistic behavior towards them.

When this happens, many good people will simply stand by and do/say nothing, or they will try to show their love for their enemies by supporting them.

The problem comes in, when doing this, they run afoul of God's Laws. Because then, you are not dealing with mankind, where you can change laws based on the whims of others, but with an entity that will not change the Rules, no matter what you, I, or anyone else or group thinks.

Yet, this party tends to think it can do whatever it wants to, and, if trouble comes because of it, blame the other party.

They, for the most part, have a problem with truth, and facts. Every program, every piece of legislation, and every solution they come up with to solve a problem, turns out to be a total disaster, not only for the nation, but for those that they are supposedly trying to help!!

For the black community, during the 'civil rights' heyday, someone came up with the idea of instituting a law that essentially gave preferential treatment to blacks when it came to enrolling in classes of limited capacity, and in hiring. It was known as Affirmative Action!!

What it was meant to do was give blacks a helping hand in setting them on the pathway of prosperity, even if they had lower scores than whites, vying for that same spot. It was considered payback for all the years they had been held back, and denied a proper education.

Well, to make a long story short. Because of this new law, other groups that were considered minorities to blacks, began to take advantage of it, and began to 'leap-frog', over the very people it was designed to help. It got so that just being black, was not enough. It helped if you were also a woman, disabled, an immigrant, or some other labeled minority. The black man, still found himself at the bottom of the ladder.

My point is, God took what man thought was going to be the perfect solution to this one problem, and turned it around where it became a disaster for those that it was designed to help. He did so, because man thought he could out do God.

Now that was just one of several major issues I have with this party. Their stance on abortion, LGBTQ+ rights, Separation of Church/God/Christ and state, environmentalism and others, are all designed to do one thing and that is to make them, god, over our lives.

God addressed an issue like this in the Bible, when He told Samuel to do as the people asked, when they wanted to have a king to rule over them, like the other nations around them had. He said, 1Sam. 8:7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

The election of this woman, and her party, might just make history, but, for all the wrong reasons.

If you choose to reject God, and that is exactly what it is, whatever happens to you, is on YOU!!!

You would do better to not vote at all, if you don't like her opponent, than to vote for her, and her party.
